NOTE: The scriptures below are believed to be changed by the Mandela effect. These changes appear in all translations. This means that the reason they will get them wrong cannot be that they are just confusing it with other translations because it's the same in every translation. Nor is it a modernization because the early manuscripts all have the same changes. This means it's not a modernization either.

This is a memory quiz only. Do not get into commentary or why it's in there. Do not have any discussion about their answers until they are done. Go from one to the next. Record their answer in the space provided. Ask them to reply with their first impression. If they don't remember say I don't remember and skip that one. Read the ve number to give them a reference and then ask them to fill in the blank or answer the question. Urge them to keep moving. Go with you first instinct.

For fill in the blank questions, what most people remember is provided directly after the question in parenthesis. For what do you remember questions, the correct answer to what we have now is provided right after the question

If you review their results with them, ask them these two questions for each one that they got wrong. This is a bombshell

- 1) Is this the 1st time this has ever come to your attention
- 2) How is that possible

The church says that the Bible can't change based on the Doctrine of Preservation. However, most Christians have no idea what it really means and many Pastors don't either. With the information below you will know more than 90% of the pastor that you talk to. Also...without the DOP, they have no proof that the Bible can't change. Therefore, your testimony is true.

The Doctrine of Preservation has 2 parts

1) Theological necessity

1. Theological necessity means if God inspired it then it only makes sense that He would have preserved it. This is a philosophy and a presumption but it is not a doctrine of the Bible therefore it cannot be used to prove that the Bible could not be changed by the Mandela effect
2. We don't have originals so we can't be certain that what we have is exactly the same so the belief that what we have now is identical to what was given must be taken by faith to some degree.
3. If God is powerful enough to inspire the Bible He is powerful enough to preserve it. No one is arguing that God has somehow let His guard down and the Devil has been able to slip one past God. It's not about power it's about permission. This is a presumption that God is in favor of preserving it. What if Amos 8:11 is in play again and God wants to take His word away as a judgement?
4. This first part of DOP is based on presumption. It is wishful thinking and the presumption that God would never want to take His word away when He has demonstrated that He was willing to do that many times.

5. Psalms 74:9 Amos 8:11 Lamentations 2:9 Exekiel 7:26 2nd Chron 36:18 1 Sam 3:1 1st Sam 28:5 Psalms 18:25 Ezekiel 14

2) Scriptures

There are many scriptures that are relied upon to suggest that the scriptures could never change. Just dispelling the 4 below should be enough to at least make them start to re-think what they have held to be true their entire Christian life. None of these passages teach that the Bible couldn't be changed by the Mandela Effect

Psalms 12

1 Help, LORD; for the godly man ceaseth; for the faithful fail from among the children of men. 2 They speak vanity every one with his neighbour: with flattering lips and with a double heart do they speak. 3 The LORD shall cut off all flattering lips, and the tongue that speaketh proud things: 4 Who have said, With our tongue will we prevail; our lips are our own: who is lord over us? 5 For the oppression of the poor, for the sighing of the needy, now will I arise, saith the LORD; I will set him in safety from him that puffeth at him. 6 The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. 7 Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever. 8 The wicked walk on every side, when the vilest men are exalted.

Would you agree that the context of this psalm is vs 1 and vs 5 is the Godly man

If the context of Psalms 12 is the godly man and some translations render vs 7 as the godly man and all commentaries interpret vs 7 to mean the godly man, please explain why you believe you are right and all of those other people are wrong. Be specific

Thou shalt keep them, O Lord,.... Not the words before mentioned, as Aben Ezra explains it, for the affix is masculine and not feminine; not but God has wonderfully kept and preserved the sacred writings; and he keeps every word of promise which he has made; and the doctrines of the Gospel will always continue from one generation to another; but the sense is, that God will keep the poor and needy,

The suffix eem in Psalm 12:8 refers to the miserable and poor; the suffix ennu in Psalm 12:8 (him, not: us, which would be pointed תצרונו, and more especially since it is not preceded by תשמרונו) refers back to the man who yearns for deliverance mentioned in the divine utterance, Psalm 12:6.

Matthew 5:17

Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil. 18For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled. 19Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil.

- Did he come?
- Then did he fulfill?

Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.

- During the period of time prior to heaven and earth passing away, the only criteria by which a jot or tittle “shall in no wise pass” would be the following condition...”till all be fulfilled

These were fulfilled when he came and offered himself a sacrifice to God,

Psalms 119:89

For ever, O LORD, thy word is settled in heaven.

The location of where it will preserved is sighted as being off of the earth not on the pages of the book

The definition of the term "thy word" may not mean the KJV bible in English

Here the location of where it will preserved is indicated but now how. It could just as easily mean that it will be preserved through oral tradition, the minds and hearts of God's people and the new covenant where it is written on the tablets of our hearts

This is what we are being told by almost all pastors

- I know that the bible says that God rewards fools and transgressors but it doesn't mean that. (Prov 26:10)
- I know the Bible seems to clearly say that Paul was robbing churches but it doesn't mean that. (2 Cor 11:8)
- I know that the Bible now clearly teaches that that you can sacrifice reptiles to God but it doesn't mean that (Lev 12:8 KJV)
- I know the Bible says that men are sleeping together and women are grinding but it doesn't in any way give the impression that they are having gay sex.
  - And an article called Luke's Gay Apocalypse uses these twisted passages to draw the conclusion that you can be gay and still be raptured. (Luke 17:34 KJV)
- I know that the bible speaks of gentiles sucking the breasts of Kings and nursing fathers but it doesn't mean that. (Num 11:12 KJV / Isaiah 60:16 (Most translations))
- I know it seems like there are female angles in the bible but it doesn't mean that (Zechariah 5:9)

Universal Bible Quiz

- I know that it sounds like God himself is masturbating and that he's shaving women's vaginas and He is discovering their vaginas and stripping them naked but it doesn't mean that. (Isaiah 27:12 ASV / Isaiah 7:20 NAS / Isaiah 3:17 KJV )
- I know the bible is full of unicorns, people pissing all over the place, people eating their own dung and drinking their own piss, Paul is going to the tavern, Daniel is a president, Peter is running around naked, they're celebrating Easter in the book of Acts but these things are very familiar to me and have always been in the bible.
  - Unicorns Numbers 23:22, Numbers 24:8, Deuteronomy 33:17, Job 39:9, Job 39:10, Psalms 22 20, Psalms 29:6, Psalms 92:10, Isaiah 34:7
  - Pissing 1st Samuel 25:22, 1st Samuel 25:30, 1st Kings 16:11, 1st Kings 14:10, 1st Kings 21:21 2nd Kings 9:8
  - Eating their own dung Isaiah 36:12
  - Three taverns Acts 28:15
  - Daniel president Daniel 6:2
  - Easter Acts 12:4
  - Peter running naked (John 21:7)
- I know that crazy 1611 KJV has some funny words like;
- Aliens, worlds, planets, shuttle, woof, ouches, napkin, pillow, shipmen, sailors, navy, munitions, concord, pavilion, theatre, parched corn, Wimples, looking glass, glasses, fashion, gay clothing, Girdles, bonnets, aprons, needlework, Insurrection, senate, presidents, pence, bank, tires, brakes, mufflers, ornaments, Passengers, coupling, sporting, sport, porters, gross, scum, slime, wizards, subscribe, publish, media, press, pen, advertise, merchandise, accounting, science, Jupiter, gravity, space, penny... matrix, bottles, couch, stuff, engines, planes, pilots, ferry boat, college, townclerk, doctors, lawyers, silly, pollute, environ, round about, street, apes, peacock, garlick, traffick, castle, damsel, unicorn, dwarf, satyr....

But those have always been in the Cambridge 1611 version and all KJV versions of the bible that followed but no one has ever thought that was odd until now

I know the KJV has so many punctuation, grammatical and spelling errors on every page that it looks like it was written by a 5th grader but that's just the way the King James language is written and it's always been like that

- Example: Num 11:13 Whence should I have flesh to give unto all this people? for they weep unto me, saying, Give us flesh, that we may eat.
- I know the KJV says Jesus has "paps" which means female breasts according to the original language (mastos) but it doesn't mean that
- I know it seems that even though Johnathan stripped naked in front of David, (1 Sam 18:3) David is described as falling on him in passion, he's bowing down with Johnathan which is a euphuism for sex in Job (Job 31:9) they're kissing each other they're weeping together, declaring their love for one another, and finally we have the term

Universal Bible Quiz

“until David exceeded” which means that he “grew large in His body” but it doesn’t mean that there was anything sordid going on....just move along (1 Sam 20:41)

- I know that every single pastor in the entire world will tell you “Lion” if you asked them “who laid down with the lamb” but they’re all just misremembering....all of them....every time....without exception. That’s completely understandable!
- I know that the phrase Judge not “lest” ye be judged is on the lips of every sinner you ever witnessed to, its quoted in a thousand books, movies and sermons, its probably repeated more than any other scripture in the bible ....but in this timeline... it has never existed in any translation going all the way back to the dead sea scrolls.....NEVER EXISTED! So how did so many people get it wrong? To explain this, pastors tell me that someone probably preached a message 70 years ago and misquoted it and so that misquote went around the world like the telephone game somehow overcoming the influence of every bible and all the people reading and studying those bibles. I don’t really think that’s possible do you? So if its not that....what is your explanation?
- I know it says that
  - “God created them male and female created he them; and blessed them, and called their name Adam, in the day when they were created”. I know that sounds exactly like God just named them both Adam but it doesn’t mean that. (Gen 5:2)
- I know the bible calls Jesus a Holy Thing but its not degrading or blasphemous in any way (Luke 1:35 KJV)
- I know it says that one of the criteria to be an elder is that he is a “lover of good men” but there’s no inuendo there (Titus 1:8 KJV)
- I know the KJV translates a word which means thoroughly as thoroughly in some places and throughly in other places even though its supposed to mean the same thing and you would think it would be spelled the same way but that’s totally normal....right? (Exodus 21:19 vs Job 6:2 KJV only)
- Another example is how the Bible sometimes translates a word alway and other times its always but that’s totally normal right? (2 Sam 9:10 or 1 Chron 16:15)

Universal Bible Quiz

I know that

- Jeremiah is Jeremy
- Noah is Noe
- Asher is Aser
- Hosea is Osee
- Nebuchadnezzar is nebuchadnezzar
- OT Judah lost his h
- NT Judah is now Judas
- Shem is Sem
- Gideon is Gedeon
- Nephtali is Nephtalim
- John the Baptist is John Baptist
- Elijah is Elias
- John is Joses
- Isaiah is Esias
- Timothy is Timotheous
- Manasseh is Manasses
- Ephraim is Joseph
- Zebulun is Zebulon
- Boaz is Booz

I know the names of these 19 bible characters are not the same as what most people vividly remember the way they appear in our bibles .....and they're different from what you see in every book written about these characters...and everyone refers to them the way we all remember them but I guess people just aren't paying attention. That's just how they are spelled in the KJV when they are translated into English....and no one in the world ever noticed and the bibles have always spelled them that way.

I would not want to be the person responsible for caring for Gods sheep and have to find a way to defend and agree with this juggernaut of filth, blaspheme and confusion. This mountain of anomalies seems to be a high wall to scale if you are still trying to suggest that all this can be explained away with "misremembering".

I know that many of us that acknowledge this phenomenon have left the church for the following reason. Sunday after Sunday Pastors are misquoting the scripture real-time as they read from the bible because their memories are fighting them and they don't even realize their doing this. They have vivid memories of a passage being a certain way in their bible but now it reads differently and their conscience doesn't allow them to misquote it in a way that is different from their memory. But because they have a pet doctrine that the bible can't change, they subconsciously refuse to stop and rationally consider what is happening so they just gloss over the controversy and keep going as if nothing is wrong. The growing number of sheep in the congregation that are aware of this are noticing this egregious lack of discernment and our quickly losing trust in the pastor's ability to lead them. We assume if we can see these obvious changes then the pastor certainly should be able to see it. And when we go to you to alert you to this mysterious experience, we are often sharply dismissed as those that have lost our way with little honest discussion. This becomes the threshold of departure and we are forced to break fellowship.

Below is a list of what many believe are passages that have been supernaturally changed organized into category. If you try hard enough you can find some reasonable explanation in the commentaries for each and every one of these examples. But if you simply rely and trust in your memory you will certainly find that many of these are things that you have never noticed before. How is it possible for a Pastor to be in the ministry for 40 years and not know that the Wolf laid down with the lamb. How can a pastor of 40 years have never known that there is a passage in the book of Leviticus that indicates that you can sacrifice turtles. In other words....you can suggest that the terms Turtle dove and Turtle are interchangeable but it doesn't explain how a seasoned pastor could just be finding out now for the first time that this is in his bible. This is a man that has probably done several, 6-week series on the types and shadows of OT sacrifice during his ministry without ever learning that Leviticus 12:8 (KJV) has a translation that says "Turtles." Or today is the first time that he learned that God commanded the Israelites to sacrifice a "female" lamb or any of the bible quiz questions. These observations represent proof that is close to unequivocal. There is however just enough plausible deniability provided by Satan if you would prefer to choose to deny your screaming conscience and allow God to mess with your theology as he has done many times before.

Remember Rev 13:7 It was granted to him to make war with the saints and to overcome them. And authority was given him over every tribe, tongue, and nation. The devil doesn't have enough power to supernaturally change the bible unless God gives it to him.

All of the following examples are KJV ONLY Scriptural anomalies by category

Doctrinal Paradoxes

- God has a father - Rev 1:6 "And hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever."
- Slay them Luke 19:27 "But those mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and slay them before me."
- Female Angels Zechariah 5:9 .....and looked, and, behold, there came out two women, and the wind was in their wings; for they had wings like the wings of a stork: and they lifted up the ephah between the earth and the heaven.

- Sacrificing Female lambs
- Sacrificing turtles Leviticus 12:6:8 And if she be not able to bring a lamb, then she shall bring two turtles, or two young pigeons; Leviticus 1:3 Your sacrifice must be without blemish
- Jesus is a Holy thing Luke 1:35 The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God.
- Sin is condoned Prov 26:10 KJV The great God that formed all things both rewardeth the fool, and rewardeth transgressors. 1 Pet 1:15 .... "Be holy, because I am holy."
- Stealing condoned 2 Cor 11:8 "I robbed other churches taking wages of them to do you service" Exodus 20:15 You shall not steal
- There is no god Isaiah 45:14 KJV ....and they shall fall down unto thee, they shall make supplication unto thee, saying, Surely God is in thee; and there is none else, there is no God.
- Patriarchs using divination But Laban said to him, "If I have found favor in your eyes, please stay. I have learned by divination that the LORD has blessed me because of you." (Gen 30:27 NIV, NAS)
- Corn Psalms 65:13 KJV Cambridge 1611 ...."the valleys also are covered over with corn"
  - Corn was first used in the old world in 1630. Bible authors wouldn't of known about corn
- Couch Luke 5:24. But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, (he said unto the sick of the palsy,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go into thine house. Cambridge 1611 says couch so its not a "modernization"
  - The word 'Couch' appears to come from the French around the 1300's or perhaps from
  - Jay Wellington Couch who invented the couch in the year 1895. It wasn't invented when they published the 1611 KJV
  - Therefore...it is a biblical paradox for the word couch to be printed in a 1611 KJV bible.
